

I work for a bank, I have since 1988. DO NOT soften the no call restrictions, there are enough banks out there that people can pick up a phone and get information if they want it. On another note, how about a federal DO NOT EMAIL LIST, too much friggin spam.